

PAIR OF TABLE LAMPS BY JACQUES QUINET

A pair of exquisite table lamps by the French designer Jacques Quinet. These mid-century modern table lamps were constructed in nickered chrome. Quinet originally designed the model, of which there are very few exemplars, for his personal home La Renardière outside of Deauville. The pair of lamps comes accompanied by a certificate of authenticity from the artist's daughter.

France, circa 1966.
